Joe LaRose wrote the tune around 1980. You can hear his original recording (to which he added artificial "vinyl scratchiness" here: www.youtube.com/watch?v=i6nf1qllw7I). Joe wrote in 2015 "I think of all the recorded versions Bruce Molsky's is probably the closest to the original -- though I like Rayna's a lot. By the way, originally, the tune only had the A part, and that is the way Bruce plays it on his recording. A little later, I wrote the B part and showed it to Rayna, and that is the way she and most everybody else plays it. I prefer it with both parts, but originally it only had the one." (Molsky's recording is on his Contented Must Be album. You can hear Rayna playing it slowly, and then very slowly, at www.raynagellert.com/tune-videos/, a bit more than halfway down the page.)
